(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, April 4.—Speculators who have been trading for two weeks in the confident belief that they knew the inside facts of the Northern Securities settlement were non-plussed to-day by the terms of the petition of the Union Pacific interests for an injunction against the distribution of Northern Securities sesses, on the plan proposed.

The suppositions used to explain the recent large buying of Union Pacific were recent large buying of Union Pacific were decided to be groundless, and the surmise of the market shifted back to the hypothesis of competitive buying for control. St. Paul was most acutely affected by the opening break, as it has been most netively speculated in on the unwarranted assumptions of the course of the Northern Securities settlegent. Other motable movements seemed to be due to special causes. People's Gas suffered from the Supreme Court decision adverse to its contention against the 70 cents Chicago gas ordinance.

United states Stepl preferred reflected the anxiety over the shewing of earnings to be made by the quarterly statement due to-morrow. Amalgamated Copper and Eugar weakened sharply without explanation. The spurt in Chicago Great Western was called a traders' movement.

A small engagement of god for export was announced, and the boilday in London was supplied to curtail the activity of the exchange market, on which the gold movement depends. Weekly rejents of railroad trailic officials were somewhat restrained in the expressions of satisfaction with the traffic outlook. The bond market was quite active and 56 mewhat irregular. FOR BROWN

Strong Paper Before Governor for Release of Former Insurance Cashier.

Will be Sent to Hustings Court Officers Before Governor Passes Upon 1t.

A strong petition was submitted to Governor Montague yesterday asking for the absolute and unconditional pardon of mbezzling funds from the Life Insurance Company of Virginia of which he was eashier, and His Excellency took the papers under advisement. The petition was drawn up by Mr. Wyndham Meredih, counsel for he prisoner, who is now in fall awaiting sentence of the Hustings Court, for one year in the penitentiary, and is signed in the handwriting of Governor Montague will take no action until the papers shall have been sont to Judge Wilt and Commonwealth's Attorney Richardson for their consideration, and much interest is, therefore, felting to their probable attitude. The asking of a full pardom for Brown comes as something of a surprise, as it was at first thought the Governor would be appealed to only for a commutation of the sentence to jail punishment. The paper is a very strong one, and is signed by 165 citizens and business houses, and nine of the jurors who tried the man, three of the latter asking for commutation of sentence.

petition are letters from the president of petition are letters from the president of the Life Insurance Company and of the Virginia Trust Company, which bonded Brown, asking that he be released, and one from Dr. C. S. Gardner, pastor of Grace Street, expressing the belief that the ends of justice will be met by commutation.

Dr. H. Stuart McLean sends a letter saying that Brown's health is bad, and that his life will be endangered by long confinement.

In his individual petition, Brown sets out that he desires pardon not to avoid punishment, but to be in a position to support those dependent upon him.

The following extract is taken from the citizens' petition:

"Your petitioners respectfully unito with the jury in asking a pardon for Mr. Brown that shall restore him to his family and give him an opportunity to retrieve his life, * * believing that the ends of justice have been satisfied by his conviction and that to enforce his punishment would be a useless sacrifice of the life of one who has truly repented of his one act of crime, and who is needed, sadiy needed, by his young children and sorrowing wife."

HIS HEALTH.

JURY DIVIDED.

In asking that the man be pardoned seven of the jurors submit a petition which reads in part as follows:

"On his trial it was shown that for fifty-two years he has led a life of probity and monesty; that only within the last eight months has there been a shortage in his accounts with the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, although he has been tieir cashier for night twenty years, and that his deed could only be accounted for by the president of that company, who had known him longest and most intimately, 'as an act of insamily,' We believe and know Mr. Brown is a truly repentant man; that his age and the snock and distress that has lately visited him have shortened his life; that he is a man broken in life and spirit, upon whom the hand of disease lies heavily, and that any confinement in fall or penitentiary would be but a useless sucrifice of life, for, if returned to his family and friends, we fully believe that he will live an upright, faithful and rollgious life. The law has been vindicated by our verdict, and true justice will be served by tempering with mercy the verdict we were compelled to render."

The petition of the hurors ends with the urgent plea that the Governor grant in full and complete pardon." The following jurors sign for pardon upreservedly: L. K. Shepherd, Samuel H. Cottrell, H. W. Bubank, T. P. Howle, C. P. D. Carlton.

The following jurors recommend commutation of the sentence to a failt term, the first-named for a "short" term: William D, Rice, T. D. Neal, Jr., John H. Gordon.
